We Want You!

Community Input for the Town Manager Search Process

The Town of Chapel Hill is hiring a new Town Manager. Residents are invited to apply to participate as assessors in the Town Manager Assessment Center. Apply by noon Monday, April 16, 2018.

Assessors will observe candidates for the Town Manager position in simulated scenarios and report back to a candidate review committee. Selected assessors must attend both days of the Assessment Center on May 31 and June 1. Training is provided.

Applications and information are available at www.townofchapelhill.org/townmanagersearch.

If you have questions about the application process or need assistance, contact Beth Vazquez at bvazquez@townofchapelhill.org or 919-265-0806.

Near & Far Local Celebration of Global Culture

Celebrate global culture in Chapel Hill at this fun and funky street party from 2 to 5 p.m. Sunday, April 8, at the Plaza at 140 W. Franklin Street in downtown Chapel Hill. Community cultural groups will share their heritage through crafts, activities, music, dance and other arts performances suitable for all ages.

This cultural celebration offers a variety of international food offerings. Global flavors (and favorite downtown restaurants) will be featured at food trucks and in the tasting tent, including Mediterranean Deli, Talulla's, Mr. Mongolian, Buddhicious and Bandido's Tacotopia.

The lineup features performances by Pline Mounzeo (African traditional drumming), Ryan Dial-Stanley (Lumbee Tribe cultural performance), Prema Natya Vidyalaya Dance School (classical Indian dance), Scandemonium (Nordic dance tunes), United Tae Kwon Do Academy, Charanga Carolina (Cuban music), and Huepa Culture and Arts Institute (Colombian performing arts). Interactive exhibitors include AFS Intercultural, Amina's Gift, Cane Creek Cloggers, Carolina Capoeira, Carolina Charanga, Carolina Indian Circle, Carolina Irish Dance Association, Chapel Hill Chinese Folk Dance, Chinese School, Henna Tattoo Artists, Huepa Culture, Ukrainian Association of NC, UNC Kasama, UNC Global and United TKD.

Bring the whole family for an unforgettable afternoon of education, appreciation and celebration of global cultures.

What do you remember? Share your experiences. Tell your stories.

The Town of Chapel Hill Historic Civil Rights Commemorations Task Force wants to hear from people who lived in Chapel Hill during the 1960s. All are invited to tell stories of notable events, people and places during the Civil Rights Era in Chapel Hill.

Share your experiences –

- Online – Fill out an online form. www.chapelhillpubliclibrary.org/civilrights
- Record a voicemail message – 919-642-3629
- In Person – Contact Molly at 919-969-2028 or mluby@townofchapelhill.org

The stories will be used by the Historic Civil Rights Commemorations Task Force to create a timeline that identifies people, places and events that should be remembered for their part in the African American struggle for civil rights in Chapel Hill, including the sit-in at the Colonial Drugstore and the Lincoln High students whose actions ignited the integration movement in Chapel Hill.

Books Sandwiched In

Books Sandwiched In will meet at 11:30 a.m. Wednesday, April 4, in Meeting Room C at Chapel Hill Public Library to discuss Hidden Figures: The American Dream and the Untold Story of the Black Women Mathematicians Who Helped Win the Space Race, by Margot Lee Shetterly. Books Sandwiched In, sponsored by the Friends of the Chapel Hill Public Library, is free and open to the public. The group meets on the first Wednesday of each month (except January and July) in meeting room C at the Library at 100 Library Drive.

You are invited to bring a lunch and join the discussion. The books are available at the circulation desk on a first-come, first-served basis.
