

GIRLS. EMPOWERED. MOTIVATED. SPECTACULAR.

CHAPEL HILL POLICE DEPARTMENT

G.E.M.S. is an 8-week series of activities open to young women (ages 14 to 21) to explore future opportunities in community-oriented careers in public safety and local government. G.E.M.S focuses on leadership in public service, professional skill building, and community engagement.

- Meet women leaders in a variety wide variety of public service jobs including police, fire, law, court system, engineering, and technology.
- Experience 'behind-the-scenes' field trips to Town facilities, led by women police officers and firefighters.
- Enjoy interactive team-building activities, learn professional job skills, and how to set future career goals.

All sessions are FREE and meals will be provided.

Sessions are 6pm-8pm on Tuesdays, March 17 to May 12 at the Chapel Hill Police Department.
