

Advisory Board Development Review Process

Actions are color coded by the party that is completing them. Colors correspond to the above categories

Hexagon shapes indicate a meeting between the applicant and another party

*Different Applications are reviewed by different Advisory Boards and Commissions. Click here to learn more.

1. Subject to Advisory Board Stipulations
 2. Final Plan Application and review by CDC or HDC is required for Minor Subdivision and Site Plan Applications. Other applications are approved once recommended changes have been made by applicant.
 3. This is an iterative process of revision and review. There are typically two or more rounds of review.