Looking for health information online?

Learn how to evaluate health information that you find on the web and find reliable websites for researching health information with a free program from the Chapel Hill Public Library. "Finding Good Health Info Online" will be offered from 8:15-9:45 a.m., Friday, Nov. 30, at Chapel Hill Public Library.

The program is free, but registration is required. Visit www.lib.unc.edu/cws/calendar_ch.html or call 919-968-2780 for more information.

Chapel Hill Receives Employer Commuting Award

The Town of the Chapel Hill received a regional Employer Commuting Award (Tier 5: 500 – 999 Employees) from Go Triangle on Nov. 9, for its Transportation Management Plan Program, which works to increase use of alternative transportation by Town employees and employees of local businesses.

In 2011-2012, Town employees logged in 113,810 new miles of alternative transportation. Through the promotional efforts of the Town's Go Chapel Hill program, the business community's employees reduced 517,889 vehicle miles by trying alternative transportation.
