Landlords— Register Now!

The Town of Chapel Hill is announcing the launch of the new “Landlord Partnership Program.” The Landlord Partnership Program is a voluntary program for landlords, property owners, and property managers who own or manage rental housing units in Chapel Hill.

Landlords/property owners/property managers can register individual properties with the Housing and Neighborhood Services Division of the Planning Department. Properties that have on-site property management are not eligible for the program.

For more information about the program, visit www.townofchapelhill.org/landlord. Have questions? Contact Megan Wooley, Housing and Neighborhood Services Planner II, at mwooley@townofchapelhill.org or 919-969-5059.

Landlord Partnership PROGRAM

Guardians of the Hill 5K

The Chapel Hill Police Department is sponsoring the First Annual Guardians of the Hill 5K at 9 a.m. Saturday, June 15, at Southern Community Park. Proceeds will benefit Special Olympics of North Carolina.

Sign up at tinyurl.com/bvpxaa8. Registration fees are $25 per individual or $30 per family registration.

Race day festivities will include informational booths set up by the Chapel Hill Police Department, Chapel Hill Fire Department, Orange County Emergency Services and other public safety organizations.

Word Basics Workshop

A Word Basics workshop, part of the Community Workshop Series, will be held from 6 to 7:30 p.m. Tuesday, June 11, at Chapel Hill Public Library. Learn the basics of using Microsoft Word, including formatting, how to copy and paste, how to insert images and how to check for spelling and grammar errors.

The workshop is free, but registration is required. To register, call 919-968-2780 or visit tinyurl.com/ntsyxuh.
