Street Improvement Project Has Begun

The Town of Chapel Hill has begun its annual street resurfacing program. The streets or portions of streets listed below are planned for resurfacing. Manhole and water valves will be adjusted and raised prior to paving.

Battle Lane, Buxton Court, Eastowne Drive, Eden Lane, Emory Drive, Foxwood Drive, Gimghoul Road, Grove Street, Hillcrest Circle, Hillcrest Road, Honeysuckle Road, Long Leaf Drive, Manly Street, Mason Farm Road, Milton Avenue, Murray Lane, Robertson Lane, Rogerson Drive, Springview Trail, Sweeten Creek Road

The project is expected to be completed by October. Equipment failure or weather conditions could extend the time. Information: 919-969-5165 or www.townofchapelhill.org/publicworks

Create a Library Trading Card

Artists! Readers! Writers! Create art for Chapel Hill Public Library's Banned Books Trading Card Project.

Artists of all ages are invited to submit 5" x 7" original artworks on paper inspired by banned or challenged books or authors. Entries will be exhibited during Banned Books Week (Sept. 22-28) and seven will be selected to be used for a series of trading cards.

Pair it with a brief artist's statement and drop it off at the library or mail to Shannon Bailey, Reference Librarian, Chapel Hill Public Library, 100 Library Drive, Chapel Hill, NC 27514. Entries will be accepted through Monday, Aug. 19, 2013.

Renew Residential Parking Permits

If you live in a Town of Chapel Hill residential parking district, your parking permit is scheduled to expire on July 31. Apply for your new parking permit now.

Residents may apply if they live on a street where parking is prohibited and there is no practical way of parking off the street.
