Revenue Collections Moves to University Square

The Town of Chapel Hill Revenue Collection services will temporarily move to University Square at 143 W. Franklin St. while repairs to the first floor of Town Hall are underway. The payment center, which is expected to open on Monday, Sept. 23, is located between Time-Out and Optometric Eye Care.

Persons wishing to make public housing rental or tax payments in person should come to this location. Payments by mail may be made to the Town of Chapel Hill, 405 Martin Luther King Jr. Blvd, Chapel Hill, NC 27514, or via the outside drop box at Town Hall. Staff are exploring options for business, inspections and building permit payments.

Town Council to Meet at Southern Human Services Center

The Chapel Hill Town Council will meet at the Orange County Southern Human Services Center, 2501 Homestead Road, throughout the fall and winter while renovations are done to the Town Hall Council Chamber. The center is located behind the Seymour Senior Center; view map at <http://tinyurl.com/owa3rz6>.

While most meetings of the Council will take place at the Orange County facility, persons interested in attending any meetings of the Council are encouraged to check the website calendar for location scheduling: www.townofchapelhill.org/calendar

Chapel Hill Gov TV-18 on Time Warner Cable is temporarily off the air due to technical difficulties. Viewers may find the Council meetings aired live on Time Warner Cable Channel 180 or Digital Channel 119.6. Council meetings also will be available on the web at www.townofchapelhill.org/councilvideo in the "live streaming" format.
