Throwing a Party?

Remember these tips if you are throwing a party!

Notify your neighbors about the party. If they are informed, they are much more likely to feel respected, to be prepared, and to be willing to work with you.

Make a plan for parking and be sure that people know it. Encourage people to walk, carpool, or take the bus to decrease congestion and the risk of impaired drivers.

Tar Heel Downtown!

Chapel Hill will be in the national spotlight on Thursday, Oct. 17, when the University North Carolina Football Team will take on the Miami Hurricanes in Kenan Stadium, an ESPN broadcast event with live, national coverage.

Downtown will be buzzing with activity before kickoff with the Tar Heel Downtown family-friendly event to take place from 4 to 7 p.m. event.

At the event, there will be live broadcasting of the Countdown to Kickoff Radio Show on Franklin Street. A stage will feature performances from the band Liquid Pleasure, Carolina Cheerleaders, and the Marching Tar Heels - with a special appearance by Rameses. Family-friendly activities will include bounce houses and face painting. Carolina giveaways will be Clean up after the party, and make sure there is no trash left outside, especially on your neighbors’ lawns.

If you’re having a band, contact the Chapel Hill Police Department at least one week in advance to apply for a permit which is required for exceptions to the Noise Ordinance. Contact: Flora Parrish at 919-968-2760

If you live in a neighborhood and friends are visiting, when they leave, remind them to be quiet and to treat your neighborhood with respect as they make their way home.

Notify Chapel Hill Parking Services at 919-932-2912, particularly in neighborhoods with residential permit restrictions; they can provide help about how/where to park.

Obey local and state laws and ordinances regarding alcohol.

Most importantly, keep the noise down!
