It's Time for the Shred-a-Thon!

Tax Day is over, and this is a great time to clean out your files! Get your confidential papers shredded and recycled securely at the Shred-a-Thon from 10 a.m. to 2 p.m. Thursday, April 27, in the parking lot next to Willow Drive at University Place, 201 S. Estes Drive. This is a walk-up event.

There is a limit of five banker boxes or bags of paper per person. Please remove plastic binders, large metal clips, hanging file folders and other non-paper items.

The Shred-a-Thon is free to residents and small businesses of Orange County and that part of the Town of Chapel Hill in Durham County as well as employees of the Towns and Orange County. For more information, contact the Chapel Hill Police Department at 919-968-2862.

Another Shred-a-Thon will be held Saturday, April 29 at the recycling site behind Home Depot at the Hampton Pointe Shopping Center in Hillsborough. This event will be drive-through only.
