Quilt Exhibit

The Quilt Exhibit at Chapel Hill Public Library on March 16 and 17 will feature a display of more than 50 quilts. A special section of red and white quilts celebrates the Durham Orange Quilters Guild's Ruby anniversary. In addition to celebrating forty years of the Guild, March 17 is National Quilt Day.

To accompany the exhibit and perhaps inspire the next generation of quilters, the Guild will lead hands-on demonstrations for all ages. The Guild has hung several quilts in the Library lobby to promote the exhibit and show off their craft.

Skip the Straw!

The Towns of Chapel Hill, Carrboro, and Hillsborough and Orange County have declared March 2019 as "Skip the Straw" month, joining a growing movement across the country to reduce single-use plastics. This campaign increases awareness of negative impacts of marine plastic pollution, the use of petroleum resources for products that are used only briefly, and the need for waste reduction.

See the documentary film "Straws."
