Town Celebration Continues

The celebration continues for the Town of Chapel Hill's commemorative series, Chapel Hill 1819/2019, recognizing two hundred years of local government and the many organizations and departments that have made – and continue to make – Chapel Hill vibrant. Multiple Town and community partners are hosting events to recognize this community milestone.

Funky Art and Fun on Franklin Street!

A fun, experiential, arts-focused festival for all ages is coming to Downtown Chapel Hill! The Festifall arts festival brings the community together around a diverse array of arts experiences from 11 a.m. to 3 p.m. Saturday, Oct. 12. This year's festival will feature an eclectic arts and craft market, live music, interactive performances, and free family fun.

Live music includes the Onyx Club Boys, Skylar Gudasz, Caique Vidal & Batuque, and Charly Lowry of Dark Water Rising. Dance in the streets with Indigo Dance Academy, Venezuelan Dance Group, Gemelos, Zumba, Carolina Irish Dance, and Prema Natya Dance Academy.

Check out the Family Fun Zone for a graffiti art wall, creative fun from the Scrap Exchange, chalk art, and more.

Parking will be free in all Town lots all day on Saturday, Oct. 12. Need another way to get there? Try Chapel Hill Transit or bike to the event.

Haunted Hill

The Chapel Hill Community Center park at 120 S. Estes Drive is getting spooky for "Haunted Hill" on Saturday, Oct. 19. The event features a trunk-or-treat, games, activities, glow in the dark climb, and a movie in the park.

The Trunk-or-Treat, games and activities will run from 5 to 8:30 p.m. Glow in the dark climb from 6:30 to 8:30 p.m. (for ages six and older with a signed waiver). The movie, Scooby-Doo's Spookiest Tales, will begin at 6:45 p.m.

Parking is free. Additional parking will be available near the event site at the Chamber of Commerce (104 S. Estes Drive). As always, the Town of Chapel Hill promotes a Bike & Pedestrian-Friendly Community and encourages everyone to cycle or walk whenever attending these great events!
