Locally Grown Begins June 24

selection of wines, as well as food from some of Franklin Street's favorite restaurants.

Locally Grown is a summer-long series of free live concerts and movies on the Wallace Plaza, atop the Wallace Parking Deck at 150 E. Rosemary St. This summer's line up includes nationally-known and locally-based music acts as well as documentary and feature films created by local authors and directors. The series is presented by the Town of Chapel Hill and the Chapel Hill Downtown Partnership.

New Online Resources from the Library

Consumer Reports is now available as an online resource from the library. All Chapel Hill Public Library cardholders will be able to log in to Consumer Reports using their library card number and PIN at chapelhillpubliclibrary.org/txp/?s=Reference&c=10-Online-Resources

Consumer Reports is under the Home and Consumer Heading in the left hand column. After you finish looking at Consumer Reports take the time to check out our other electronic offerings.

Join Us in Honoring Heroes

Joey and Freddie Shelton will be honored by Mayor Mark Kleinschmidt and the Town Council at 7 p.m. Monday, June 21, at Chapel Hill Town Hall. The Sheltons will be recognized for their act of heroism when they successfully thwarted an attempted kidnapping. Their act of heroism potentially saved a life and resulted in the successful capture and arrest of the suspect.

Also to be recognized is Melissa Williams, who wrote down the suspect's license plate number as he sped away and reported it to police. The public is welcome to attend the Council meeting at Town Hall or view the meeting by streaming video on the website or on Gov-TV 18.
