Mall, Ya'll?

The Town Council is considering the possibility of moving the Chapel Hill Public Library to the University Mall. The idea is that the library will meet its space needs, find a new home in a busy and user-friendly location, save money, and potentially provide its existing building for some other public use.

Is it the best course of action for our community? The Mayor and Town Council members are seeking more information before they decide (potentially in February 2011), and they especially want to hear from you, Chapel Hill citizens! You are encouraged to fill out the comment form at www.townofchapelhill.org/futurelibrary. Provide your input by clicking on the Share Your Ideas button!
